Stewards of Creation: the Christian duty of care for the natural world with Rev. Tim Hewes

Friday 19th June, 7.45 p.m..

About our speaker: Tim Hewes was a dentist for more than 20 years before being ordained as a self-supporting, assisting priest in the Church of England. He is now retired and lives with his wife in Oxfordshire. Having been passionate about the climate emergency for the last couple of decades, he has recently been a climate activist with several groups, including Christian Climate Action.

He was accused of conspiring to bring the M25 to a standstill. He was arrested in a raid on his home by eight police officers. He was imprisoned on remand for six weeks. In March 2025, he was found Not Guilty.

About our topic: For the Christian, man is a creature, like the rest of creation, as distinct from God, the Creator. So how should we relate to the natural world? The temptation to act as Lords of creation is real. How do we overcome it and act as good stewards?

Fish and chips. £15 per person. At 7 p.m. If you would like to join us for this, please email pbhf.bucklandandfaringdon@gmail.com to book your place by 15th June.
