In the 1930s and 1940s, huge swathes of Europe were subjugated by the Nazis, bringing terror, deprivation and genocide. In great danger some resisted, including the clergy and religious featured in this talk. Inspired by their Christian beliefs, they defied the dread might of Hitler's reich, to save who they could. Some paid with their lives. Meek and mild they were not, brave and wild might be nearer the mark. Join us to hear more!

Fish and chips!

Join us prior to the talk, at 7 p.m., for a fish supper.
